

Chapter 17: University Travel and Reimbursement

17.A University Travel and Reimbursement

Many faculty members travel as part of their research, teaching, and service responsibilities. Policies concerning safety, health, and similar concerns can be found at the Global Michigan website, where faculty can also complete the required registration for travel outside the United States. Procurement Services provides information online about expenses and reimbursement.

Updated 2022