Sponsored by Rackham Graduate School

- John H. D'Arms Faculty Awards for Distinguished Graduate Mentoring in the Humanities
Recognizes scholars of extraordinary depth and breadth who have provided their students with the quality of intellectual support that only remarkable learning, coupled with boundless generosity of spirit, can bestow. Eligibility: Tenured faculty members in the Humanities who have directed a substantial number of dissertations over the past several years.

- Rackham Distinguished Graduate Mentor Award

Recognizes the considerable efforts and accomplishments of faculty who consistently serve as effective mentors of doctoral students. Eligibility: tenured faculty members who have advised a substantial number of doctoral students over a number of years. Note: Because the D'Arms Faculty Awards recognize distinguished mentoring in the humanities, this award typically will go to faculty in other fields.

- Rackham Master's Mentoring Award

Recognizes faculty members from any discipline who serve as dedicated and inspiring mentors to Rackham master's students, especially those students who do not intend to pursue doctoral degrees. Eligibility: scholars, researchers, artists or professionals with a demonstrated commitment to fostering the intellectual, creative, scholarly, and/or professional growth of their master's degree students.

External Faculty Awards & Programs

The opportunities listed in this section provide external funding through awards and programs in which the sponsors limit the number of submissions from the University. Typically, an internal selection process is undertaken to decide which proposals will go forward.

Other Awards

The UM Office of Research \(UMOR\) collects and distributes information about numerous limited submission opportunities for faculty. These opportunities are coordinated by UMOR, the Medical School, or other offices. The website also provides an archive of opportunities posted previously.
