

14.K Voluntary Withholding of Services

The University cannot make payments of wages and services to individuals who choose to withhold the services for which they are employed. For further information about the rules that apply if individuals choose to withhold all or part of their services (for example, during a strike), see SPG 201.71.